NHRC Welcomes Govt.-UDMF Deal

National Human Rights Commission welcomes the Eight-Point Agreement reached between the Government of Nepal and the agitating United Democratic Madhesi Front (UDMF) on 28th February, 2008. Upon being confident that this historical landmark will help establish the congenial environment for the appropriate protection and promotion of human rights, the Commission, hereby expects the effective implementation of the agreement. Likewise, believing that the Eight-Point Agreement will significantly contribute to hold the forthcoming election in free, fair and fearless environment, the Commission, also appeals to the other parties excluded in the Agreement to embark upon the quest for the solution to the problem through the means of dialogue in order to support the Constituent Assembly election.
