NHRC to Host National Conference of Human Rights Defenders

The National Human Rights Commission is hosting a National Conference of Human Rights Defenders on October 8-9, 2012.

The conference will be inaugurated by Rt. Hon. Prime Minister Dr. Baburam Bhattarai in which 200 human rights defenders from across 75 districts of the country will participate.

Human rights experts are presenting the paper on all spheres and dimensions of human rights in the Conference.

The Conference will also have broad discussions on the Human Rights Defenders guidelines - 2069 before its adoption. On the occasion, the participants will review the over all human rights situation of all five development regions and also discuss on the coordination and collaboration among the human rights defenders.

The conference will last for two days.
