NHRC Urges the Ratification of the UNCPRAMW

LALITPUR: The National Human Rights Commission held a meeting at its premises and recommended to the Government of Nepal to ratify the United Nations Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families.

Similarly, the meeting also passed the Human Rights Defenders Guidelines-2069. In the guidelines, the Commission has incorporated the resolutions passed by the National Conference of Human Rights Defenders held on 9 October, 2012 in Lalitpur. The Guidelines is developed in line with the norms of the United Nations Declaration related to Human Rights Defenders-1998.

Likewise, in the meeting, the Commission has also recommended to the Government of Nepal to endorse the Guidelines on the human rights collaboration and coordination-2069 which has been developed with the objective to strengthen and institutionalize the collaboration between human rights defenders and civil society.
