Press release

21 January, 2021

Be sensitive to save Ganga Maya's life.

National Human Rights Commission has been regularly monitoring the condition of Ganga Maya Adhikari's health who has been staging strikes for a long time demanding legal action against those involved in the murder of her son Krishna Prasad Adhikari.

The Commission Bagmati provincial office wrote to the Ministry of Health and Population and Bir Hospital to ensure her right to life and proper medical care and treatment and appropriate habitation. She has been staging a fast-unto-death since 21 December, 2020 and her health is deteriorating day by day, despite treatment at the emergency unit of the centre.

The Commission requests to the government of Nepal to take effective steps to ensure justice to Ganga Maya Adhikari and protect her life and arrange her appropriate housing and the Commission reiterates to implement the agreements reached in the past between the government and Ganga Maya Adhikari. The Commission also requests to Ganga Maya Adhikari who is staging strikes not to choose the risky path of fast on-to death strike.
