Press Release

24 January, 2021

Seek solution through the negotiation and talks, protect right to life

NHRC Bagmati Provincial Office has monitored the with regard to the serious health condition of General Secretary of the Nepal Communist Party (Democratic) DS Mahata, Bharat Dhanadi, Lalan Sinhg and Kishor Singh including other persons who are staging sit-in from 18 December, 2020 in Kathmandu putting forward the 52 points demands of free of cost of the health and education and were also arrested by the police time and again.

While monitoring the Commission received information that they were arrested time and again and released during staging sit-in and hunger strike and are admitted at the Helping Hands hospital Chabahil as health problem is seen. DS Mahata and Bharat Dhanadi are still in their hunger strike at the hospital and their health is deteriorating. The Commission requests to the government of Nepal to address the appropriate demands of public concerns and protect their right to life through negotiation and talks. The Commission also requests to the concerned all who are staging strikes not to choose the risky path of hunger strike to fulfill the demands.
