Press Release

25 September, 2020

Make public the implementation status of past agreements with Dr. KC

Be sensitive towards saving Dr. KC's life

National Human Rights Commission draws attention towards the deteriorating health of Dr KC who is on fast-on-to-death since September 14 who commenced his hunger strike in Chandan Nath municipality – 6, Babaramasta Temple in Jumla demanding the implementation of previous agreements with the government of Nepal to reform in medical education.

The Commission Karnali Province branch office Jumla and Province Office Bagmati have been monitoring his hunger strike spot Jumla. When his health condition is deteriorating in the 9th day of his hunger strike, Dr. KC was taken to the Trauma Center located at Bir hospital was brought to Kathmandu from Nepaljung and now he is taken to the TU teaching hospital Maharajgunj. The Commission received the information during monitoring that as his health condition is constant and is deteriorating with levels of potassium, magnesium and glucose decreasing in his body, and due to time and again's hunger strike the immunity power is very low as a result is prone to high risk of infection.

The Commission also draws its attention towards the memorendums submitted by the Nepal Medical Association and other various organizations requesting to make efforts to save Dr. KC's life.

The Commission draws attention of the Government of Nepal to be sensitive towards the medical education like fundamental human rights, make efforts to save Dr. KC's life being serious to the previous agreements concluded time and again with Dr. KC, make public implementation status of past agreements Dr KC. Similarly, the Commission requests to concern all to resolve the issues through dialogue and negotiation and not to choose the fast on to death like complex alternative.
