Press Release

4 January, 2021

Ensure justice to the conflict victims

National Human Rights Commission Bagmati Province Office has monitored with regard to the health condition of Ganga Maya Adhikari who began her fast-unto-death on December 2, 2021 at the Trauma Centre, Bir Hospital seeking action against those involved in the murder of her son Krishna Prasad Adhikari. NHRC monitoring shows that she is weak and her health is deteriorating.

The Commission reminds its recommendations in this incident after concluding investigation to the government of Nepal to take legal action on criminal charges and provide compensation to the victims' family on 5 April, 2008. Many other incidents of human rights violation related to the armed conflict like that of the Krishna Prasad Adhikari's murder incident needs to be resolved as soon as possible. From this only individual's right to get timely justice can be ensured. The Bagmati Province Office of NHRC has already written to the Ministry of Health and Population to make necessary arrangements and coordination to save Ganga Maya's life.

Thus, the Commission draws attention of the Government of Nepal towards protecting the life of Ganga Maya Adhikari and ensuring her right to justice and fulfilling the international commitments made by the government.
